Ole Miss

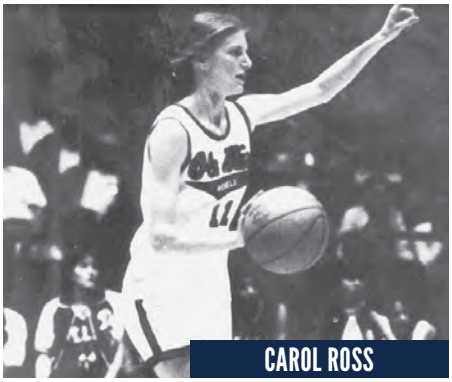
"It's hard to describe what Ole Miss means to me because I am Ole Miss, and I've had the best time here. I have a special place in my heart for Ole Miss, and Ole Miss has a special place in its heart for me. A lot of the things that have happened to me in my life happened because of Ole Miss."

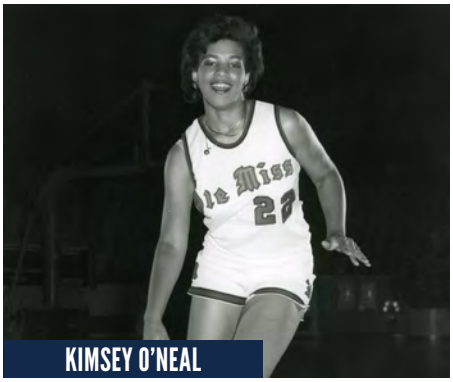
- Peggie Gillom-Granderson
Ole Miss All-American
Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2013

REBEL PRIDE

Former Ole Miss student-athletes can be found across the world proving successful in many areas of business, athletics, medicine, law and numerous other fields. Those who have donned the Cardinal and Navy for the Rebels include former WNBA coaches Carol Ross and Jennifer Gillom, former WNBA player and former Ole Miss assistant coach Armintie Price Herrington, district pharmacy supervisor for CVS Kimsey O'Neal, and Rebel great Peggie Gillom-Granderson, who gives back to Ole Miss by working with the schools' Fellowship of Christian Athletes.



CAROL ROSS



KIMSEY O'NEAL

"Ole Miss means more to me than just a University. Ole Miss is my family and will always be. Our women's basketball program has a tradition of excellence. Coach Van Chancellor from day one instilled the pride of the Ole Miss Lady Rebels into us, and that tradition has become a mainstay through today's time. I'm proud to be an Ole Miss Lady Rebel and always will be. I love my Ole Miss."

- Kimsey O'Neal
1987 SEC Freshman of the Year

JENNIFER GILLOM

ARMINTIE HERRINGTON

"Playing at Ole Miss gave me the aggressiveness, work ethic and 'never give up attitude' that prepared me for the WNBA. Coming from Ole Miss, I knew nothing could stand in my way."

- Armintie Price Herrington
No. 3 Draft Pick, 2007 WNBA Draft

YOLETT MCPHEE-MCCUIN

WNBA HONORS

Five WNBA players with Ole Miss ties have claimed WNBA honors. Shakira Austin garnered acclaim in her first season in the league, earning All-Rookie team honors. The 2012 season was good to the Rebels, with former Ole Miss head coach Lin Dunn and her Indiana Fever team claiming the 2012 WNBA Title. In the same year, Carol Ross earned WNBA Coach of the Year. Former head coach Van Chancellor has had the most impressive WNBA career. The coach of the four-time WNBA Champion, Houston Comets, Chancellor was named WNBA Coach of the Year three times. Armintie Price Herrington, the 2007 WNBA Rookie of the Year, also picked up several WNBA accolades during her WNBA career.

Bottom: Shakira Austin made a splash her in her first year in the league earning All-Rookie accolades, while Lin Dunn led the Indiana Fever to the 2012 WNBA title.

USA BASKETBALL

Ole Miss has extensive ties to USA Basketball. Jennifer Gillom has a storied history with the national team as a member of the 1988 gold medal team in Seoul and an assistant coach on the 2012 gold medal team in London. Former head coach Van Chancellor was the head coach of the 2004 Team USA squad that won gold in Athens, while Peggie Gillom was an assistant coach with the 2000 gold medal team in Sydney. Outside of the Olympics, Ole Miss has been represented in other international competition as well. Carol Ross was an assistant coach on the 2005 U19 national team that won gold at the World Championships. Ole Miss has also had a handful play in the Pan-American Games, including Valencia McFarland in 2011.

Armintie Price Herrington led the Atlanta Dream to three WNBA Finals appearances in four seasons. Price Herrington earned Second-Team All-WNBA Defensive Team honors with Atlanta in 2013 and concluded her nine-year WNBA career with the Washington Mystics in 2015.

WNBA REBELS

The Ole Miss women's basketball team has a long and storied WNBA tradition with eight players being drafted. Jennifer Gillom was the first Rebel to reach the WNBA, selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the 1997 Initial Player Allocation, earning First-Team WNBA honors in 1999 and an All-Star selection in 2000 before concluding her career with the LA Sparks in 2003. She then moved to the bench, serving as head coach of the LA Sparks and Minnesota Lynx and serving as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics and Connecticut Sun.

Armintie Price Herrington was the third overall pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft and went on to earn 2007 WNBA Rookie of the Year accolades with the Chicago Sky. Price Herrington helped the Atlanta Dream to three WNBA Final appearances (2010, 2011 and 2013) and spent time with the Los Angeles Sparks and Washington Mystics before retiring after the 2015 season.

Shakira Austin tied Price as the highest draft pick in program history, as the third overall pick in the 2022 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics. Austin went on to earn a spot on the All-Rookie team and led the Mystics in rebounding and blocks.

The second Rebel drafted under McPhee-McCuin, Marquesha Davis was selected with the 11th overall pick by the New York Liberty at the 2024 WNBA Draft to extend the Rebel lineage in the league. The following year, Madison Scott was selected as the 14th overall pick by the Dallas Wings in the 2025 WNBA Draft.

Yolanda Moore spent four seasons in the WNBA with the Houston Comets, where she was coached by her former Ole Miss coach Van Chancellor. Moore claimed back-to-back WNBA titles in 1997 and 1998.

Saundra Jackson was drafted in the third round of the 2000 WNBA draft and spent time with the Orlando Miracle, while Bianca Thomas was drafted by the LA Sparks in 2010.

Ole Miss has several ties to the WNBA sidelines as well. Rebel player and former head coach Carol Ross served as the head coach of the LA Sparks, and former Ole Miss coach Lin Dunn served as the head coach of the Indiana Fever prior to transitioning to the front office. Van Chancellor served as head coach of the Houston Comets from 1997-2006, winning four WNBA titles and earning WNBA Coach of the Year three times. Rebel greats Peggie Gillom-Granderson and Alisa Scott also served on Chancellor's staff with the Comets.

MARCH MADNESS

Ole Miss women's basketball has a storied tradition at the national tournament with 21 trips to the Big Dance. In their 21 appearances, the Rebels have reached five Elite Eights and 12 Sweet 16s, winning 23 NCAA Tournament games along the way.

Ole Miss is one of just 33 teams nationally that have made 20 or more NCAA Tournament appearances. Six Rebels have been named to the NCAA All-Regional teams, including Jennifer Gillom who was the Midwest Regional MVP in 1986.

The Rebels won the 1992 regular-season SEC title with a perfect 11-0 record and closed the season with a 29-3 record and an NCAA Elite Eight berth.

1991-92 • ELITE EIGHT

The 1991-92 Ole Miss squad was one of the finest in school history. Head coach Van Chancellor led the Rebels to a perfect 11-0 conference record, giving Ole Miss its first SEC title. The team reached the NCAA Elite Eight that year with a school-record 29-3 record.

THE SANDY AND JOHN BLACK PAVILION AT OLE MISS

The centerpiece of the Forward Together campaign is the state-of-the-art $96.5-million Pavilion at Ole Miss. On July 31, 2014, ground was broken on the 225,000-square feet arena that officially opened its doors on Jan. 7, 2016 with the Rebel men's basketball team's victory over Alabama.

Designed by AECOM and built by BL Harbert, The Pavilion boasts a capacity of 9,500 fans and includes a number of first-class amenities, including courtside and baseline seating for students, three premium club areas for fans and more than 1,700 premium seats all within an intimate seating bowl. The men's and women's locker rooms measure almost 1,500 square feet, while the facility also houses two visiting team locker rooms, officials' locker rooms, a volleyball locker room and green room space.

Ole Miss worked with Daktronics to design, manufacture and install what was the largest center-hung video display board in college sports at the time with nearly 2,400 square feet of LED. The center-hung configuration consists of 13 video displays for a total of more than 3.6 million LEDs. It includes four main video displays, two undermount video displays, four corner displays and three 360-degree rings.

On Jan. 28, 2017, the hardwood that the Rebels play on was officially named Craddock Court. Due to the generosity of Ben and David Craddock, the floor was named in honor of the entire Craddock family.

The Pavilion also includes a five-story parking garage with 800 spaces that services the entire campus community.

The placement of The Pavilion allows Ole Miss to further enhance its athletics complex - better connecting athletics to the heart of the best campus in higher education. This centralized location creates an impressive "front door" for Rebel Athletics and a destination point not only on a gameday but every day of the week.

TUOHY BASKETBALL CENTER

Ole Miss Basketball's chances of becoming a prominent program in the national hoops landscape took a big jump when Ole Miss opened the $13 million, 51,000-square-foot facility for men's and women's basketball in January 2010.

The Tuohy Basketball Center includes four distinct spaces - public, staff (coaches), team and individual practice courts for both men's and women's teams.

Spaces for the public include an attractive main rotunda/lobby to receive visitors and a multimedia/entertainment meeting room that can be used for Media Days as well as for video presentations and team functions.

Coaches' offices, a conference room, a copy center, and staff locker and dressing facilities complete the suites. The head coaches' offices provide direct access to and view of their respective practice courts.

FACILITY HIGHLIGHTS

- Opened in January of 2010
- $13 million construction project
- Facility was renamed the Tuohy Basketball Center in June 2014 after contributions from former men's basketball standout Sean Tuohy and his wife Leigh Anne
- 51,000-square-foot facility
- Individual practice courts for the men and women
- Shared weight and training rooms
- Spacious locker room and dressing facilities for the men's and women's teams
- Men's and women's film rooms, including computer terminals and video access

- Coaches office spaces include a conference room, copy center and staff locker and dressing areas
- Head coaches offices provide direct access and a view of their respective practice courts

In the women's locker room, head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin has installed her personal mantra of #NoCeilings, a phrase she has used throughout her career.

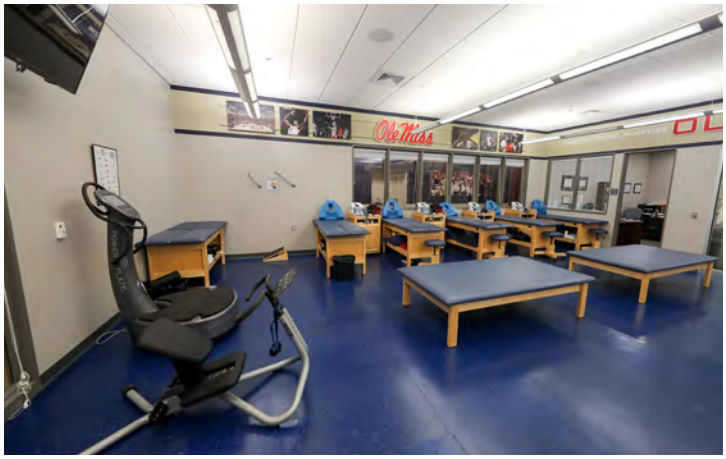
The Tuohy Center is the practice facility for the Ole Miss men's and women's programs. The building opened in 2010 and was named the Tuohy Center in 2014.

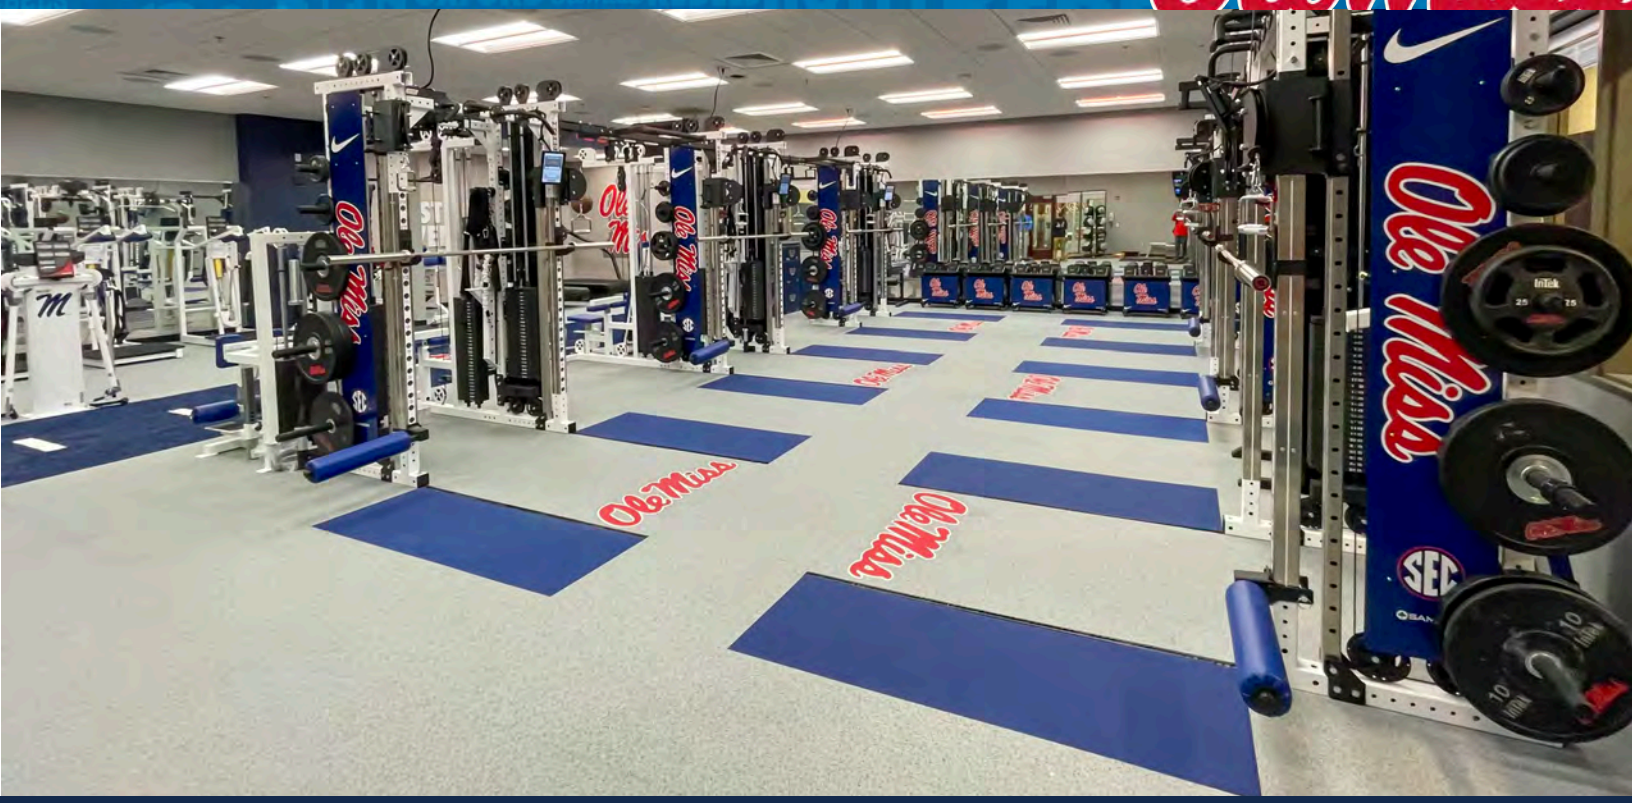
HEALTH & SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Meredith Pendergast Weaver, MS, ATC, is in charge of the rehabilitation and health of the Ole Miss women's basketball team. She is entering her 12th season with the program.

The Athletic Training Room at the Tuohy Center is equipped with state-of-the-art equipment including:

- Hydroworx 600 series Hydrotherapy Pool complete with underwater treadmill and video monitoring/analysis equipment, resistance jets, massage jets and rehab area
- Separate physician's office/examination room
- Large fully functional rehabilitation area complete with state of the art exercise and rehabilitation equipment





STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Under the direction of strength and conditioning coach Tim Boeni, the Ole Miss women's basketball team utilizes the Tuohy Center weight room to maximize their athletic potential both in-season and out of season.

The Tuohy Center weight room is equipped with:

- Six Olympic Weightlifting Platforms, each with EliteForm System
- Custom Samson Half-Racks with Adjustable-Height Cable Columns in each rack

yolett McPHEE-McCUIN

Head Coach • 8th Season

@YolettMcCuin yoweezy15

Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin has elevated Ole Miss women's basketball back into the national spotlight throughout her seven seasons in Oxford. McPhee-McCuin keeps building upon her success each season at the helm of the Rebels, leading Team 50 to its fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2024-25 for its 21st overall.

McPhee-McCuin is solidifying herself as one of the most highly touted coaches in program history, earning at least 20 overall wins and 10 conference victories for the fourth consecutive season. She is the only coach in program history to achieve this feat. McPhee-McCuin led her team to defeat two top-10 conference opponents, the first time a Rebel team has done this since the 1995-96 season.

Along with a successful conference season, Ole Miss dictated and disrupted throughout all 12 nonconference games, entering SEC play with the best scoring defense in the nation only allowing 46.7 points per game. Additionally, the Rebels set three single-game program records, securing the best field goal percentage, fewest points allowed and widest margin of victory.

Madison Scott went above and beyond in her fifth and final year under McPhee-McCuin, being named All-SEC Second Team and earning WBCA All-America Honorable Mention honors. Sira Thienou proved to be an important key in the Rebels' game, notching the second most steals by any Rebel freshman (79) to help earn her a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Defeating No. 14 Baylor on the Bears' home court, the Rebels secured their fourth ranked win of the season, marking the most in the McPhee-McCuin era. The victory advanced Ole Miss to its 12th Sweet 16 in program history and second appearance in three years.

Along with guiding the Rebels to a program best in conference wins, McPhee-McCuin picked up her 100th win at the helm of Ole Miss during the 2023-24 season to become the second coach in program history to achieve the feat.

Bringing the Rebels back to her home country of the Bahamas, McPhee-McCuin and the Rebels clinched their second tournament victory as the Rebels went on to win three games in three days and claim the 2023 Battle4Atlantis Championship. Two Rebels earned a spot on the all-tournament team in Marquesha Davis and Madison Scott, with Scott taking home Most Valuable Player Honors.

The duo of Davis and Scott continued to excel throughout the conference season, with the pair becoming the first Rebels to both earn First Team All-SEC accolades in the same season for the first time since 1989.

McPhee-McCuin's signature defense also led the Rebels to break multiple program records, with Ole Miss shattering a single-season best of 190 blocks. Holding 11 opponents to under 50 points also set a school record in a single season.

In the First Round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament, McPhee-McCuin picked up her third tournament victory as a head coach as the Rebels marched past Marquette.

The 2022-23 campaign generated plenty of noise in leading the Rebels to its 19th NCAA Tournament appearance and shook up the country in advancing to its 11th Sweet 16 in program history.

Cultivating a roster through the use of the transfer portal and with Rebel returners, McPhee-McCuin guided a team with seven newcomers to its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance for the first time since the 2004 & 2005 seasons. Reaching 20 wins also proved to hit another milestone for Ole Miss, reaching the 20-win mark in back-to-back seasons for the only time since 1993-94 & 1994-95.

After reaching an 11-2 mark through its nonconference slate, Ole Miss hit the ground running at the start of SEC play by rattling off five consecutive victories to begin 5-0. One of these first five wins included the Rebels' first win over Mississippi State in Starkville since 2004. The Rebels kept their momentum rolling against the Bulldogs in Oxford, completing the first regular season sweep over MSU since 2004.

This Rebel squad came together in multiple ways in the face of adversity, including engineering the best comeback in program history after facing a 19-point deficit at halftime at Arkansas. Defensively, Ole Miss clamped down on the Razorbacks to erase the Arkansas lead and force overtime. From then on, it was all Ole Miss to complete the comeback and take down Arkansas, 76-73. Not only was it the largest comeback in program history, but the third biggest between two SEC teams and ranks ninth in the NCAA record book.

The wins continued to come, with Ole Miss earning 11 SEC victories to tie a program record and seal its second straight fourth place finish. The 11 victories were the most for the Rebels since the conference went to the 16-game SEC schedule. Following an appearance in the SEC Tournament Semifinals, the Rebels heard their name called on Selection Sunday as an eight seed to reach the program's 19th NCAA Tournament appearance.

A First Round dominant, 71-48, victory over No. 8 Gonzaga, highlighted by its trademark defense, kept the Bulldogs at bay with a program-low in points allowed in an NCAA Tournament game. Going up against No. 1 Stanford in the Second Round, Ole Miss took control of the Cardinal in a game in which they never trailed to knock off the top-seeded host team, 54-49 to reach the Rebels' 11th Sweet 16. The Rebels became the first team since 2009 to halt a No. 1 seed from advancing to the third round.

Development has been a key theme for McPhee-McCuin, by molding transfer Angel Baker into a First Team All-SEC point guard and a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. In her third year with Madison Scott, the 2021 SEC Freshman of the Year, Scott elevated her game to earn Second Team All-SEC and All-Defensive Team honors for 2023.

McPhee-McCuin wrapped her fourth season in Oxford in 2021-22 with revitalized energy surrounding the Ole Miss women's basketball program, leading the Rebels to their 18th NCAA Tournament appearance and their first in 15 seasons with one of the most tenacious defenses in the country.

The 2021-22 campaign was one to be remembered, as McPhee-McCuin raised the bar with the expectation of the NCAA Tournament or bust from the get-go, Ole Miss rose to the occasion, accomplishing just that. Following a season-opening loss, the Rebels responded by rattling off 13 straight wins for the third-longest winning streak in program history on the way to a 23-win season.

Following its second ranked win of the season at No. 23 Kentucky and fourth straight in SEC play, the Rebels saw themselves slotted in the AP Poll on Jan. 24 at No. 24 for the program's first ranking in 15 years. Defensively, Ole Miss shattered program records with a season-high 142 blocks and held a record 10 opponents under 50 points, for the most in a single season.

Once SEC play hit, the Rebels did not cool off, picking up 10 conference wins for the second time in Ole Miss history. A 10-6 conference record pushed the Rebels into a fourth-place SEC finish for its best since 1994. With a double bye secured for the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Ole Miss knocked off No. 23 Florida to advance to its ninth semifinal appearance and first since 1993 before ultimately falling to top-seeded South Carolina. Just a little over a week later, jubilation occurred with Ole Miss seeing its name called on Selection Sunday for the first time since 2007 as a seven seed.

Under her tutelage, Shakira Austin earned First Team All-SEC honors for the second straight season, and garnered national acclaim as one of the best centers throughout Division I hoops. Bringing in transfer guard Angel Baker from Wright State proved to be key, as she went on to be named the SEC's Sixth-Woman of the Year, for the first in Ole Miss history.

McPhee-McCuin made history of her own after the 2021-22 campaign, becoming the first woman in Bahamian history to coach at the men's national level serving as an assistant with the Bahamas Men's Senior National Team during World Cup qualifiers.

Ole Miss bounced back from an 0-16 SEC season in 2019-20 to a 15-12 (4-10 SEC) campaign in 2020-21 that saw the Rebels come dangerously close to crashing the Big Dance. The Rebels knocked off three top-25 teams in the span of a month -- including a season-sweep of nationally ranked Kentucky and a momentous upset of No. 13 Arkansas in the First Round of the SEC Tournament to mark the first SEC Quarterfinal appearance for Ole Miss since 2010. The Rebels nearly knocked off No. 14 Tennessee in that quarterfinal, which would have marked the first SEC Semifinal appearance since 1993 and likely would have pushed the Rebels into the NCAA Tournament.

The Rebels were on the outside looking in on the Big Dance despite ending the regular season with a NET of 43, five NET top-100 wins, four NET top-50 wins, and a brutal final stretch that included going 4-4 in their last eight games against an average NET of 16.8 (with only two games at home). But Coach Yo and Ole Miss took that chip on their shoulder into the WNIT with a fury, advancing all the way to the championship game after playing superb team basketball -- the furthest postseason run in program history regardless of tournament. Ole Miss fell to a dominant Rice squad in that title game, but that could do little to dampen the spirits of a program with its sights set on even higher bars in the years to come.

Much of the success for the Rebels in 2020-21 came in the form of Honorable Mention All-American and First-Team All-SEC member Shakira Austin, who immediately asserted herself as one of the most feared players in the SEC and the nation after transferring to Ole Miss from Maryland in the offseason. Austin was the first First-Team selection for Ole Miss since 2014-15 and ended up on the Lisa Leslie Top-10 list, but she wasn't alone. Ole Miss' highly-touted top-ranked recruiting class from 2019 lived up to the hype in their first season, with Madison Scott earning SEC Freshman of the Year honors and Snudda Collins being named alongside her on the SEC All-Freshman team.

The swift turnaround is even more impressive when taking stock of where the Rebels were when she took over. Coach Yo took the reigns of a Rebel program her first year in 2018-19 that had just four returners and willed it to outperform all the preseason polls that had picked Ole Miss unanimously to finish last. The Rebels improved their SEC win total by two games from the year before, winning three conference contests – one of which was a thrilling 55-49 win at No. 16 Kentucky on Jan. 13, 2019. The win was the first over a ranked team on the road for Ole Miss since 2011 and the first win in general at UK since 2007.

McPhee-McCuin also mentored graduate transfer Crystal Allen, who in her lone season donning a Rebel jersey became one of the most electrifying players in the SEC. Allen finished the season third in the conference at 18.3 PPG and was named Second-Team All-SEC – the first Rebel to earn All-SEC honors since 2014-15.

She followed that up by signing the SEC's top-ranked recruiting class in 2019-20, which included two five-star signees and the first McDonald's All-American in Ole Miss women's basketball history in Madison Scott.

Coach Yo was named the Rebels' ninth head coach on April 4, 2018, the first black female head coach in Ole Miss women's basketball history.

"I am extremely humbled and grateful for the opportunity to be the women's basketball coach at the University of Mississippi," McPhee-McCuin said. "Once I stepped on campus, there was no doubt in my mind that Ole Miss had the potential to be a force to be reckoned with -- not only in the SEC but nationally as well."

McPhee-McCuin spent the previous five seasons transforming Jacksonville into a perennial power in the Atlantic Sun Conference. During her tenure as head coach, McPhee-McCuin led the Dolphins to a 94-63 record (50-24 in ASUN play) and postseason appearances in each of her last three seasons.

McPhee-McCuin, who has also served as the national team head coach for her native Bahamas, took over a program at Jacksonville that had only won 20 or more games in a season twice in its entire history and proceeded to march the Dolphins to three-straight 20-win campaigns in her final three years.
In 2015-16, McPhee-McCuin and the Dolphins made history, capturing the program's first ASUN Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth with an upset in the conference championship game over two-time defending champion Florida Gulf Coast. The victory snapped FGCU's seven-year, 71-game home streak against ASUN opponents and boosted Jacksonville to a 22-11 record.

McPhee-McCuin's team followed that up with two more 20-win seasons and the first two WNIT appearances in JU history in 2016-17 (23-9, 11-3 ASUN) and 2017-18 (24-9, 12-2) with the final season seeing the Dolphins break the school record for single-season wins. In 2016-17, Jacksonville was the lone ASUN program to receive votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll and earned the first WNIT at-large ever given to an ASUN team.

Prior to her time at Jacksonville, McPhee-McCuin was an assistant at Clemson from 2011-13, where she was recognized as one of the top assistants in the nation by National Women's Basketball Insider. While with the Tigers, McPhee-McCuin solidified her reputation as one of the best recruiters in the country, spearheading the No. 16 class in the nation in her final year at Clemson, which included five McDonalds All-America nominees.

Before her stint at Clemson, McPhee-McCuin was on staff at Pittsburgh for two seasons in 2009 and 2010. She was part of a pair of postseason appearances with the Panthers, who rose to No. 14 in the national rankings and advanced to a Sweet 16.

Her coaching career also includes stops at Portland, Frank Phillips College, and Arkansas-Pine Bluff, where she earned her master's degree in physical education with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

McPhee-McCuin received her bachelor's in business management and administration from Rhode Island in 2004, playing in 56 games over her junior and senior years at URI and helping the Rams advance to the 2003 A-10 title game. She played her first two seasons at Miami-Dade Community College.

McPhee-McCuin was the first Bahamian woman to sign a Division I letter of intent to play basketball, becoming a trailblazer in the process for other aspiring athletes from her home country. She is the first Bahamian woman to coach at a Division I program and was the first black female head coach at Jacksonville.

McPhee-McCuin is also part of two Halls of Fame across both her playing and coaching career. In 2016, she was inducted into the Bahamian Athletic Hall of Fame alongside Buddy Hield (of the NBA's Golden State Warriors) and Jonquel Jones (of the WNBA's New York Liberty). In 2013, she was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame and was one of 10 recipients of the Pathfinder Award for their distinguished achievement outside of New England.

An active member of the coaching community, McPhee-McCuin is a member of the "So You Want to be a Coach" program through the WBCA, and she holds membership in the Women of Color Association. In 2013, McPhee-McCuin joined the Center of Coaching Excellence's yearly class.

Throughout her coaching career, McPhee-McCuin has had a large impact in every community in which she has coached. She developed a foundation in the Bahamas called the NoCeilings with Coach Yo, which helps the development of children through education and athletics. Additionally, she was involved in numerous community service projects at her other coaching stops.

In addition to the growth she has facilitated on the court throughout her career, McPhee-McCuin, and her staff have instilled importance in community engagement both through service and via dialogue with fans and supporters.

Coach Yo also emphasizes teaching, developing, and inspiring through character-building and leadership development, as best evidenced by her trademark motto #NoCeilings, which serves as a rallying cry both within the program and to those familiar with her in the basketball community. Her point of emphasis with #NoCeilings is to preach a way of life, especially to young women, about living without limits to what can be achieved both on the court and in life.

Born April 30, 1982, the former Yolett McPhee and her husband, Kelly McCuin, have two daughters: Yasmine and Yuri.

Quentin Hillsman is entering his second season with Ole Miss women's basketball in the 2025-26 season. Following his first year as an assistant coach for the Rebels, Hillsman was promoted to associate head coach.

Under his leadership during the 2024-25 season, Hillsman helped take Ole Miss to new heights, guiding the Rebels to their 12th Sweet 16 appearance. The program's 50th team in history won four games against ranked foes, including two against top 10 conference opponents, marking the first time a Rebel squad has achieved this feat since 1995-96.

Hillsman joined Ole Miss after most recently spending 15 years as the head coach at Syracuse, where he became the all-time winningest coach in school history with a record of 319-169. At the helm of the Orange, Hillsman guided Syracuse to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, as well as coaching 19 all-conference selections, five All-Americans and four WNBA draft picks.

Putting Syracuse on the national map during the 2015-16 season, the Orange reached their first Sweet 16, Elite 8, Final Four and national final in school history. Hillsman guided his squad to program records with 13 conference victories, five wins over nationally ranked teams, 23 regular season wins and 30 overall wins.

His impact on the Orange was felt quickly after taking over in 2006, guiding Syracuse to its fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2007-08 and a 22-9 record. His efforts earned him recognition as the 2008 BIG EAST Coach of the Year.

Touted as one of the nation's best recruiters, Hillsman brought in 11 top-25 classes nationally in his final 12 seasons with the Orange. Hillsman also recruited six McDonald's All-Americans to Syracuse.

Prior to assuming the head coaching position, Hillsman spent one year as an assistant coach with the Orange and has made stops as an assistant at Alabama, American, Siena, and St. Mary's (Md.). Hillsman also holds experience at the high school level, leading the Patterson School in Lenoir, N.C., Laurinburg Institute (N.C.), and Newport School in Silver Spring, Md.

Hillsman has also spent time on the international level, serving as an assistant coach for the Netherlands U19 national team in trips to the FIBA U19 World Championships in 2013 and 2015.

A native of Suitland, Maryland, Hillsman graduated from St. Mary's College (Md.) in 1993 after leading the Seahawks to two Capital Athletic Conference championships.

Hillsman and his wife Shandrist have two sons, Kyan and Harlem.

Coming off of three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at UTSA, Empress Davenport joined the Rebels as an assistant coach for the 2024-25 campaign. Following one year in Oxford, she was promoted to associate coach for Ole Miss.

Under Davenport's guidance, the Rebels secured another 20-plus overall wins and 10-plus conference wins season, while also taking down four ranked foes and earning a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16. She was chosen to participate in the WBCA's 2025 Next Generation Institute, a high-level education program for experienced assistant coaches who aspire to become collegiate head coaches.

Davenport is in charge of the Ole Miss guards, and in her first season at Ole Miss that involved guiding freshman Sira Thienou. The true freshman was a key factor in the Rebels's successful year, as she earned All-SEC Freshman honors and notched the second most steals by any Rebel freshman in program history (79).

A four-year letterwinner for Texas from 2012-16, Davenport reached three NCAA Tournaments as a player while averaging 7.2 points and 3.6 rebounds during her career for the Longhorns.

"Empress is a rising star, a winner and a competitor," McPhee-McCuin said. "I've had the pleasure of watching Empress from afar and it her work ethic and competitive nature reminds me of myself. She has impacted every program she touched positively, and I am excited for her to get to work here in the Sip."

After her playing days in Austin, Davenport played one season professionally overseas in Sweden before returning to the United States to serve as an assistant coach for two years for Nike ProSkills EYBL.

Davenport entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 2018, spending three seasons as an assistant coach at Lamar where in 2018-19 the Cardinals posted a 17-1 record in the Southland en route to going 24-7 overall.

This past season at UTSA, Davenport assisted the Roadrunners to reach 18 wins for its most in a single season since 2009.

A Duncanville, Texas, native, Davenport graduated from Texas with a bachelor's degree in applied learning and development in 2016.

"I am extremely excited and grateful to join Coach Yo and the entire Ole Miss family," Davenport said. "Coach Yo has a tremendous vision for success and I am appreciative she trusts me to be a part of her staff and part of that process. I cannot wait to get started in helping to win championships at Ole Miss and I look forward to hitting the ground running."

Joy Cheek Smith boasts over 14 years of coaching experience at the Power Five level, joining Ole Miss women's basketball during the 2024-25 campaign. Following her first year as an assistant coach, Smith was promoted to associate coach for the Rebels.

In her first year under head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin, Cheek Smith was a force to be reckoned with, helping lead Ole Miss to its 12th Sweet 16 and 21st NCAA Tournament appearance in program history. Cheek Smith was placed on the ABIS Assistant Coaches Watch List as she was recognized as one of the best minds in the business.

Leading the charge for the post positions, Smith was vital in the development of forwards Madison Scott and Starr Jacobs. Scott led the Rebels with 11.8 points per game during her final year at Ole Miss, while Jacobs brought down 6.1 rebounds a game to be a key contributor in the paint.

Before serving as an assistant coach at Clemson for six years, Cheek Smith was a standout at Duke from 2006-10, playing in 137 contests for the Blue Devils in making four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. While in Durham, Cheek Smith earned All-ACC Tournament First Team Honors, All-ACC Third team and was a finalist for the Lowe's Senior Class Award.

Smith was drafted 35th overall in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever and appeared in seven games before traveling overseas to play in Poland. She signed a brief contract with the Washington Mystics in 2011 before returning to her alma mater as an assistant coach at Duke.

"Joy is a future head coach and is a huge addition to our program," McPhee-McCuin said. "She has an incredible knack for relating to players. As demonstrated by the success of the numerous professional players she has developed, her reputation as an elite player developer is well known. Joy has helped sign All-Americans and high-level players throughout all of her coaching stops. I am excited for her to bring her knowledge of the game and competitive nature to the Sip."

After reaching the Elite 8 in both seasons with the Blue Devils, Cheek Smith ventured to Ohio State to serve as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator from 2013-16. With the Buckeyes, Smith helped Ohio State land top-25 classes in her final two seasons, including a top-five class in 2015-16.

Before joining the Tigers in 2018, Smith spent two seasons at Vanderbilt where she earned the national honor of being named one of the WBCA's "Thirty Under 30". At Clemson, Smith reached one NCAA Tournament with the Tigers in 2019 and guided Amari Robinson to a Second Team All-ACC nod in 2023.

Smith is joined in Oxford by her husband Allen and daughters Harleigh and Emori.

"I am extremely excited for the opportunity to work for Coach Yo at Ole Miss," Smith said. "She is a dynamic leader and a proven winner on and off the court. I've always admired what she has done in rebuilding the program and how she has positively impacted her players lives. I am excited to be a part of the program as she continues to elevate Ole Miss and win championships."

After spending three seasons at her alma mater as an assistant coach at Jacksonville University, Kayla Gordon reunited with her former collegiate coach in Yolett McPhee-McCuin as Ole Miss' recruiting coordinator/assistant coach during the 2024-25 season.

Spearheading all recruiting efforts during her first year, Gordon helped secure SEC All-Freshman honoree Sira Thienou. She also brought in a trio of star-studded transfers who led Ole Miss to the program's 12th Sweet 16. The Rebels saw immense success with Gordon as an assistant, notching a 22-11 record, including two victories over top 10 opponents.

As a player at JU, Gordon left her mark in the Dolphin record book in several categories. As the best rebounder in school history, Gordon tallied 1,031 boards and is the only player in school history to surpass 1,000 in her career. Her 1,225 points scored are the fourth-most all-time in program history.

"It has always been a dream of mine to work alongside a former player but timing has not presented that option for me until now," said McPhee-McCuin. "Kayla is an elite level person, has elite character, and someone I've been able to watch closely as she has begun her coaching journey. We won a championship and a lot of games together. Kayla knows what I stand for and would be incredible for our players. She is a great teacher, communicator, and person and I am excited to see her impact with Team 50 and every team after."

In her four years on the floor for the Dolphins, Gordon was a member of JU's 2015-16 ASUN Tournament Championship team and also earned accolades as the ASUN Freshman of the year in 2014-15 and was honored as the ASUN's Defensive Player of the year and to the All-Conference First Team as a senior.

Following her playing career at Jacksonville, Gordon ventured to Europe where she spent three seasons at the pro level where she most recently played with Vimpelin Veto in the Finland Korisliga. In her final professional season, she averaged 19.4 points per game and shot 49% from the field in 23 games.

The Meridian, Mississippi, native returns home after graduating from Meridian High School in 2014. At Meridian, Gordon was named a 2012 Region 5-6A Player of the Year, a three-time all-conference selection and a two-time Clarion Ledger Dandy Dozen Selection.

"I am overjoyed to be joining the women's basketball program at Ole Miss," Gordon said. "I am extremely grateful for the opportunity to work with someone that I love and respect as a coach and as a person. Coach Yo is a phenomenal coach who has and will continue to impact the game of basketball. As her former player, I know first-hand of her impact and willingness to grow and develop those around her. This is truly a full-circle moment to return to my home state of Mississippi and to work alongside Coach Yo."

Jacob Whitehead is in his fourth season on Yolett McPhee-McCuin's staff as the coordinator of video operations and second as an assistant coach for the 2025-26 season.

Whitehead was vital in Ole Miss' 2025 NCAA Tournament run, helping the Rebels advance to the Sweet 16 by leading film sessions during the season. Ole Miss saw their fourth consecutive double-digit conference wins season and ended the year ranked in the top 25 nationally in eight major statistical categories.

Whitehead joined Ole Miss following a stint as the video coordinator as well as the interim director of men's basketball operations at SIU Edwardsville. With the Cougars, Whitehead was responsible for all video aspects of the scouting reports as well as live coding games on the bench and creating edits in-game for halftime. His duties even included overseeing all student managers and team social media.

Prior to his role as a video coordinator, Whitehead was a graduate assistant during the 2020-21 season. From 2017-2020, Whitehead worked as the head men's basketball manager. Patrick Henry is in his fourth season as the associate athletics director for women's basketball under Ole Miss head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin in 2025-26, and was promoted to assistant coach entering his second season in Oxford.

Henry assists in oversight of the daily organizational aspects of the Ole Miss women's program's operations and provides assistance to the coaching staff.

"I am elated to have Patrick join our program," McPhee-McCuin said. "He is a great addition for Ole Miss women's basketball because of his roles in various capacities with several championship collegiate programs and professional organizations. Along with multiple championship experiences, his relationships forged in the sports industry and corporate world as a consultant will be a positive impact on our staff as we continue to elevate our program."

Recognized as one of the best strategic minds in basketball and sports consulting industry, Henry came to Ole Miss with over two decades of experience in athletics. He has worked at the High School, Junior College, Division III, Division II and Division I levels as an assistant coach, at the professional level as an advanced scout and a sports industry and executive coaching consultant since 2015.

"I am truly humbled to be a part of the women's basketball program at Ole Miss and the tremendous foundation of success Coach Yo has built," Henry said. "I look forward to the opportunity to add value and help execute the championship vision she has created as we continue to make history at one of premier programs in the country and show that there are 'No Ceilings' on what can be accomplished here at the University of Mississippi and the Southeastern Conference."

Henry's most recent coaching experience was a two-year run at Miami (Ohio), where he specialized in the development of the RedHawk perimeter players, in addition to duties in practice and in game strategy. For his efforts, he was twice recognized as one of the top Non-BCS/Power Five Assistant Coaches in women's basketball (2013-15) and was tabbed Mid-American Conference Women's Basketball Assistant Coach of the Year by recruiting services in 2014. In his two years at Miami, he identified and recruited two first year starters as freshmen, including a First Team All-Conference and a Conference Freshmen of the year selection, as well as the program's all-time leading scorer.

During the 2012-13 season Henry served as the video coordinator at Indiana. While with the Hoosiers, he helped handle film exchange, filming of practice and assisted in video break down for scouting. He was also responsible for creating presentations and materials used in recruiting.

Prior to his time at Indiana, Henry was an assistant at Texas State for six seasons (2005-11). The last three seasons, he was the associate head coach. While with the Bobcats, he served as the team's recruiting coordinator, helped develop offensive and defensive schemes and was the principle architect of an offense that finished ninth in the country in scoring in 2008.

During his career, Henry also worked on men's staffs at Mercer (2002-05), Georgia Southern (2001-02), Frank Phillips College (2000-01) and Florida Southern (1999-00). He has also served as a member of the support staff at Ohio (1995-97). In total, he has worked for six different coaches who have been recognized as National Coach of the Year. He has worked for three different coaches who have been head coaches at the professional level, including two recognized as WNBA Coach of the Year. In addition to working at multiple levels of the coaching profession, Henry has served as a part of four separate coaching staffs that have either won or shared a conference championship (Sunshine State, Southern, Atlantic Sun and Southland).

Henry, a native of Warner Robins, Georgia, is a 1998 graduate of Ohio University, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Interpersonal Communication with a related area of Sports Science. He earned his Master of Education in Holistic Education from Mercer University in 2005.

Michonné Gamble-Rivers is in her eighth season at Ole Miss and her fourth as the assistant athletic director for player engagement entering the 2025-26 season.

Gamble-Rivers previously worked with McPhee-McCuin at Jacksonville as the Director of Player Development during her final two seasons at JU in 2017 and 2018.

"Michonné is a perfect match for the young ladies that are present on our team, as well as the ones that will join the program in the future," McPhee-McCuin said. "She is passionate about the growth of young women, and she is a total team player. One of my goals is to equip our student-athletes with the skill and tools for them to be successful, and I am confident that Michonné will help with this."

Prior to her time at Jacksonville, she worked six years at City Neighbors High School in Baltimore, Maryland. While there, she served as a student advisor and the Director of Special Projects. She was also tasked with designing and updating the school's website as a technical support specialist.

Gamble-Rivers also worked at The Met School, where she tutored and led educational efforts for underrepresented students in the Providence, Rhode Island, area.

She received bachelor's degrees in human development & family studies and business administration from the University of Rhode Island in 2008, and she completed her master's in leadership & learning from Jacksonville in 2018.

Chelsea Wolf is entering her eighth season working under Ole Miss head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin in 2025-26, and her second as the assistant A.D. for women's basketball operations after being promoted following three seasons as the coordinator of women's basketball operations.

Wolf helps oversee the day-to-day operations of the program, including travel, equipment, the Full Court Club and camps.

Wolf came to Ole Miss after serving the previous two seasons at Monmouth as the Director of Women's Basketball Operations in 2017 and 2018. Wolf also served in similar roles at Siena in 2016 and Louisiana in 2015 -- the latter of which put together a 23-12 campaign and won the 2015 WBI title.

Her first position in Division I was as a graduate assistant coach at LIU Brooklyn during the 2013 and 2014 seasons. She also previously served as an assistant coach at Division III programs Centenary (N.J.) College (2011-12) and Middlesex County (N.J.) College (2009-10).

A native of Pine Brook, New Jersey, Wolf graduated with her bachelor's in contemporary art from Ramapo (N.J.) College in 2009, where she was a member of the women's basketball, cross country and track & field teams. Wolf earned her master's in media arts from LIU Brooklyn in 2014.

Following stints playing professionally in Hungary and Mexico, Mississippi native Myah Taylor is entering her second season as the coordinator of operations for Ole Miss women's basketball for the 2025-26 season.

"I am excited to have Myah back in Oxford with her Ole Miss Family," head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin said. "Myah is a leader, winner, a hard worker and has always had aspirations to explore the operations side of athletics. When the opportunity presented itself there was no doubt in my mind that Myah was the best option! She understands the Ole Miss way, she will mentor our student-athletes and she will continue to impact the Oxford community in a positive way."

Taylor recently spent a season overseas with Vasas Akademia, playing in 24 games in Hungary's top professional women's league. In 24 games, Taylor averaged 8.4 points, 3.3 assists and 2.2 steals per game. Prior to Hungary, Taylor spent eight games with Freseras Irapuato in Mexico.

Coming to Ole Miss as a graduate transfer for the 2022-23 season, Taylor was an instrumental part in leading the Rebels to its first Sweet 16 appearance since 2007. The Olive Branch, Mississippi, native paced the Rebels in assists with a total of 113 for an average of 3.6 per game. Taylor provided a key defensive presence for Ole Miss, with an average of 1.7 steals per game and came up clutch when needed. With 15 seconds remaining in the Second Round of the 2023 NCAA Tournament against No. 1 Stanford, it was Taylor's steal that secured Ole Miss' upset victory against the Cardinal.

Prior to her year in Oxford, Taylor spent four seasons at Mississippi State where she concluded her career as a Bulldog ranking sixth in total assists with a total of 445, third in assists per game at 3.9 and eighth in total steals with 195.

Coming out of Olive Branch High School, Taylor was touted as a five-star prospect and the best overall in Mississippi and was named the Mississippi Gatorade Player of the Year three times.

Montè Harris joined the Ole Miss women's basketball staff in July of 2024 as its manager of creative content following a year at UTSA as a graphic designer.

Prior to his stint in San Antonio, Harris spent nearly two years as a graduate assistant at Mercer University in central Georgia. Harris worked hand-in-hand with the Bears' marketing and communications departments to develop digital content for multiple platforms, including social media, print, advertising collateral, motion graphics and digital displays.

Harris came to Macon from Boone, North Carolina, where he was a graphic design intern for Appalachian State Athletics Marketing from August 2020 through May 2021. While he was with the Mountaineers, Harris was tasked with creating various forms of visual content for teams, leagues and events, while also preparing designs for branded items, such as apparel, posters and equipment.

Alongside his previous experience, Harris has also founded his own company, Harris J Designs, providing services such as logo design across various industries, photography and videography – developing two different apparel lines sold directly to the public.

Harris graduated from Appalachian State with a bachelor of fine arts degree in 2021 and received his Master's in Higher education leadership from Mercer in 2023.

danetra WILLIAMS

Special Assistant to the Head Coach • 1st Season

Ole Miss (2008)

Danetra Williams is entering her first season as the special assistant to the head coach for Ole Miss women's basketball for the 2025-26 season.

"I am incredibly excited to have another Ole Miss alumni in the Touhy Building with us," head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin said. "Dee is not only alumna, but a true supporter of Ole Miss women's basketball. She is also a pro in everything she does! Her impact will be felt immediately throughout our building and in the community."

As a standout Rebel from 2005-08, Williams shot 46 percent from the field and averaged 5.5 points and 3.7 rebounds per game in 93 appearances. Additionally, she helped lead Ole Miss to the Elite Eight during the 2006-07 season.

Following her time in Oxford, Williams served as an assistant coach at then-Jones County Junior College where she helped the Lady Bobcats to a 19-8 record and a MACJC Championship.

In 2014, Williams was named the head women's basketball coach at Coahoma Community College, spending three years at the helm.

sarah marie SHARP

Assistant Director for Academic Support • 3rd Season

Houston-Victoria (2012)

Dr. Sarah Marie Sharp is the Assistant Director for Academic Support working with women's basketball and men's and women's tennis.

Prior to joining the Ole Miss team, Sharp served as the Scholastic Supervisor working with women's basketball and equestrian at Texas A&M. Prior to her experience in Aggieland, she worked at Southern Miss working with multiple teams including football, women's basketball and baseball.

Sharp earned her bachelor and master's degree in higher education from the University of Houston-Victoria and her doctorate of education degree from Southern Mississippi.

Sharp was awarded the Outstanding Graduate Student award in2018, from the University of Houston-Victoria, as well as has been an active member of the National Association of Academic and Student-Athlete Development Professionals (N4A), Women Leaders in College Sports and a Presidential Member of the National Society of Leadership and Success.

tim BOENI

Strength & Conditioning • 8th Season

Temple (2010)

Tim Boeni enters his eighth year as the strength and conditioning coach under Ole Miss head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin for the 2025-26 season.

Boeni served under McPhee-McCuin the previous three years at Jacksonville, where he was part of the program turnaround that included three straight 20-win seasons and an NCAA Tournament berth. At JU, Boeni was also in charge of baseball and men's rowing, and he assisted with the football program.

"Tim was part of our championship run at Jacksonville and was a key part in building the program there," McPhee-McCuin said. "He understands my philosophy and is a vital piece to the puzzle as we build a championship culture here at Ole Miss. The ladies love his energy, and he is able to get the best out of them every day."

Prior to Jacksonville, he served as a volunteer assistant track and field coach at Monmouth University working with jumpers (2011-2013). Before Monmouth, he served as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, Temple University, working with the sprints and jumps (2010-2011). He has also served as a performance specialist at several private facilities.

During his athletic career at Temple, Boeni was a three-time qualifier for the USA Track & Field Championships, finishing fourth indoors in 2013 in the long jump. He was the 2010 Atlantic 10 Indoor Field Performer of the Year, as well as the 2010 IC4A champion in the long jump – one of the oldest track meets in the United States that exclusively includes schools from the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic. Boeni was a six-time A-10 all-conference honoree, and he set the A-10 outdoor record in the long jump at 25 feet, 2.75 inches. He holds an overall PR of 25 feet, eight inches, and he was also part of Temple's school-record 4x100-meter relay team at 40.42 seconds.

Boeni holds certifications through NSCA (CSCS), CSCCa (SCCC), NASM (PES and CES), USATF (Level 1), NASE (Speed Specialist Level II) and is a Certified Sprint Specialist through the USTFCCCA.

Boeni received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Temple University in 2010 and earned his master's in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania in 2015.

A native of Brick, New Jersey, he and his wife, Erin, have one daughter, Violet.

meredith PENDERGAST WEAVER

Assoc. Director of Health and Sports Performance • 12th Season

Troy (2012)

Meredith Pendergast Weaver MS, ATC, began her career as an athletic trainer at Ole Miss in 2012. She currently serves as Associate Director of Health and Sports Performance.

Weaver is responsible for the day-to-day care of the women's basketball team. Her administrative responsibilities include supervision of the Tuohy Athletic Training room staff, oversight of the Sports Nutrition department, and is a member of the Disordered Eating Treatment Team.

She has served as the women's basketball athletic trainer since 2013. As an assistant and graduate assistant athletic trainer at Ole Miss, she worked with volleyball, women's tennis, rifle, and track & field/ cross country.

Weaver earned her bachelor of science in athletic training from Troy University in 2012. Throughout her years as an undergraduate student, she spent her summers employed at Rehab Associates of Wetumpka, AL, and Troy, AL, as well as a first aider for the Varsity Cheerleading and Dance Corporation. Prior to Ole Miss, she gained experience in the Southeastern Conference as an intern at Vanderbilt University, working primarily with the Commodores' football team.

Weaver earned her master of science in nutrition from the University of Mississippi in 2015.

She is a board certified athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainers Association, licensed athletic trainer in the state of Mississippi, CPR/AED certified, and dry needle certified.

A native of Wetumpka, Alabama, Weaver resides in Oxford with her husband, Matt, Australian Shepherd- Griff, and cat- Izzy.

Tyler Buckner enters his second season with Ole Miss women's basketball, serving as a graduate assistant.

Buckner comes to Oxford after one season as a graduate assistant at Kennesaw State. With the Owls, Buckner assisted with all video operations and assisted in player development.

As an undergrad, Buckner spent four years as the head student assistant with Tennessee State men's basketball. In Nashville, Buckner led all other student assistants and assisted with equipment as well as any other operations needs.

Cymone Goodrich joined the women's basketball staff as a graduate assistant in 2024, boasting years of high-level playing experience at the Division I level.

Playing at Kansas State from 2017-22, Goodrich appeared in 177 games for the Wildcats, making 22 starts. Goodrich earned her Bachelor's degree in social science as well as a Master's in academic advising during her time in Manhattan.

Following her playing career, Goodrich spent time working for Nike in inventory management and coaching high school basketball.

Riane Griffin joined the Rebels as a graduate assistant in 2024, following a year working in game operations at UNLV.

Griffin graduated from Tennessee in 2023 with a degree in sport management, where she spent three seasons as a student manager with the Lady Vols.

jennifer SAXON

Executive Associate AD-SWA • 5th Season

SC State University (2008)

Dr. Jennifer Saxon joined the Ole Miss Athletics department in 2014, currently serving as the Executive Associate Athletics Director and Senior Women's Administrator for the Rebels.

Saxon has also served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for Social Responsibility and Engagement and the Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Enhancement during her time at Ole Miss.

She oversees the social responsibility and engagement division, as well as assumes all oversight of human resources and Title IX coordination.

Saxon and the department of Social Responsibility & Engagement strives to enhance the experience of student-athletes, staff and coaches by cultivating an environment that aligns with the core values of Ole Miss Athletics.

Key areas that Saxon and her division identify, organize and amplify will be: 1) Student-Athlete Enhancement, including career development and personal advancement; and 2) UMity, including community engagement and diversity, equity and inclusion.

While at Ole Miss, Saxon has worked to enhance the department's plan, and create meaningful relationships in the Lafayette, Oxford and University (LOU) communities. She recently spearheaded the establishment of the Ole Miss Training Program, which provides student-athletes with an opportunity to gain valuable professional experience while maintaining their respective athletics schedules. She has also been instrumental in enhancing key relationships on campus that includes the UM Career Center, Fraternal Leadership and Learning and the Center for Inclusion and Cross-Cultural Engagement (CICCE).

Additionally, Saxon serves as the Ole Miss Athletics Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) advisor, while heading life skills programming for nearly 400 student-athletes. The department continues to host a variety of programming that includes Reading with the Rebels, Read Across America Day, Where Do I Go from Here, Majors Symposium, Resume Workshops, Community Connection Week and Financial Literacy workshops.

Saxon joined Ole Miss after a five-year stint at South Carolina State where she served as Senior Women's Administrator and Assistant AD for Athletics Academic Enhancement. Saxon, who has a bachelor of science in physical education/health education services, as well as a master's in counselor education/secondary education from South Carolina State and a doctorate in higher education personnel from the University of Mississippi, brings a wealth of experience in student-athlete development to Ole Miss.

Saxon is a 2013 graduate of the Dr. Charles Whitcomb Leadership Institute and delegate at the 2014 NCAA Convention. She holds memberships in the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and Women Leaders in Colleges and Sports.

2025-26 PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

After narrowly missing the threshold to host the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, Ole Miss went 2-0 in Waco, Texas to claim the Rebels' second Sweet 16 appearance in three years, defeating Ball State and Baylor on the Bears' home court.

THE EXPECTATION, NOT THE EXCEPTION

Entering year eight of the Yolett McPhee-McCuin era in Oxford, the standard has been set.

Two Sweet 16s in three years, four NCAA Tournaments in a row, four straight 10-win SEC seasons, multiple All-SEC selections and three WNBA Draft picks, the Rebels have re-asserted themselves as a top program in women's college basketball.

TELL A FRIEND TO TELL A FRIEND, WE'RE BACK!

Entering the 2025-26 season, three key players from last year's squad are poised to provide leadership for the nine newcomers. Returning starters in Christeen Iwuala and Sira Thienou are primed to showcase their development from the off-season, while J'Adore Young is ready to return to the court after medically redshirting last season.

Christeen Iwuala

- Appeared in all 33 games in 2024-25 while starting in six
- Had at least five rebounds 17 times while leading the team in the category nine times last season
- Averaged 6.8 points and 4.7 rebounds per game as a Rebel

Sira Thienou

- Appeared in all 33 games during 2024-25 season with 22 starts
- Named to the SEC All-Freshman Team, earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors twice, becoming the first Rebel since Madison Scott to earn that honor multiple times in a season
- Recorded 79 steals, the second-most by an Ole Miss freshman in program history

J'Adore Young

- Did not play in any games and redshirted the 2024-25 season
- Appeared off the bench in seven games for the Rebels in 2023-24
- Snagged a season-best four rebounds twice her freshman year

PORTAL POWERHOUSE

Branding herself as the portal queen, when players decide to transfer, Coach Yo loves to prove that a home for them is available in Oxford. Preaching the importance of development, players who decide to come to Ole Miss can see their game taken to a new level.

Bringing in eight players from the transfer portal this off-season, the Rebels have been recognized as having the second-best transfer class, according to ESPN.

Denim DeShields

- Spent one season at Mississippi State prior to entering the transfer portal, where she played and started in all 34 games
- Spent two seasons at UAB, where she was named to the 2024 American Athletic Conference All-Conference Third Team and the 2023 Conference USA All-Freshman Team
- Averaging 10.6 points and 4.2 assists per game throughout collegiate career.

Desrae Kyles

- Spent two seasons at Central Michigan prior to entering the transfer portal, where she redshirted the 2024-25 season
- Appeared in 13 games as a freshman,

averaging 9.5 minutes per game
• Shot 52.8% from the field during the 2023-24 season

Latasha Lattimore
• Spent one season at Virginia prior to entering the transfer portal, where she averaged 14.3 points and led the team with 8.2 rebounds per game
• Spent two seasons at Miami, where she averaged 6.1 points and 3.1 rebounds as a Hurricane
• Spent one season at Texas, where she played in all 32 games to help the Longhorns advance to the Elite Eight and win the Big 12 Championship title

Cotie McMahon
• Spent three seasons at Ohio State prior to entering the transfer portal, where she averaged 15.3 points and 5.5 rebounds per game, while starting in all 97 games
• Recognized as a four-time All-American Honorable Mention and an seven-time All-Big Ten honoree
• Guided Ohio State to the Elite Eight as a freshman and NCAA Tournament appearances the following two years

Jayla Murray
• Spent two seasons at Wichita State prior to entering the transfer portal, starting all 32 games in 2024-25 season except the senior day game
• Leading scorer and rebounder for the Shockers, averaging 12.4 points and 5.3 rebounds per game
• Earned AAC Second Team All-Conference honors during redshirt senior year

Kaitlin Peterson
• Spent two seasons at UCF prior to entering the transfer portal, averaging 21.4 points as a senior, the best season average by a Knight in program history
• Earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors as a junior
• Scored 599 points as a junior, the second-most by an individual player in a single season by a Knight

Debreasha Powe
• Spent three seasons at Mississippi State prior to entering the transfer portal, where she started all but one of her 99 career games
• Averages 8.51 career points, shooting 40.3% from the field
• Tallied 176 career threes, marking the fifth most in Bulldog program history

Tianna Thompson
• Spent one season at Georgia Tech prior to entering the transfer portal, making 21 appearances as a true freshman
• Tallied a career-high 19 points against Florida State, when she went 8-for-11 from the floor with a trio of 3-pointers
• Four-star recruit according to Prospects Nation and the top ranked recruit out of Georgia

FRESH FACES

Along with bringing in eight transfers, Coach Yo and her staff secured one of the best young talents in Lauren Jacobs to make up this season's newcomer class.

Lauren Jacobs
• Recognized as the No. 1 recruit out of South Carolina in the 2025 class, the 2025 South Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year
• Honored nationally in the 2025 Hoop Gurlz ESPN Top 100 rankings and as a McDonald's All-American East nominee
• Averaged 31.5 points, 7.0 rebounds, 3.1 assists and 4.2 steals per game her junior season

GOING MADi

Madison Scott had an outstanding five-year career at Ole Miss, consistently elevating her game and becoming one of the most exciting players in the SEC.

During the 2024-25 season, she scored in double figures in a team-leading 21 games, averaging 11.8 points and 3.7 assists per game, leading the Rebels in both categories. Recently, she became just the fourth player in Ole Miss history to surpass 1,600 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.

Nationally recognized for her talent, Scott earned a spot on the 2025 All-SEC Second Team, marking her seventh career conference honor, and was recognized as a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. Additionally, she was awarded the 2025 Gillom Trophy as the best women's basketball player in Mississippi.

Her eye popping play led her to earn an invite to the WNBA Draft in New York City, where she was ultimately selected with the 14th pick in the second round by the Dallas Wings.

HOME SWEET HOME

During the 2024-25 season, the Rebels won all seven nonconference games at the SJB Pavilion, the third time Ole Miss has entered conference competition undefeated at home under Coach Yo.

Rebel nation has turned the SJB Pavilion into

All-SEC honoree Sira Thienou is back for her second season in Oxford, looking to improve from her historic freshman season.

Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin, Christeen Iwuala and Cotie McMahon share their excitement about Team 51 to the media at the annual SEC Tipoff held in Birmingham, Alabama.

an intimidating environment for visiting teams, especially in the non-conference slate. Ole Miss has won 31 of its last 34 games at home against non-conference opponents, dating back to the 2020 season.

THE ROAD TO 200

Yolett McPhee-McCuin achieved a feat many coaches strive to reach, earning her 200th win in her career against Jackson State early in 2024-25. In her five seasons at Jacksonville State, McPhee-McCuin amassed a record of 94-63 and now has strung together 125 wins and counting at Ole Miss.

RECORD BREAKING REBS

Ole Miss showed up and showed out in the nonconference slate of the 2024-25 season, earning three program records.

The Rebels allowed the fewest points in program history twice as it kept Arkansas-Pine Bluff and Alabama State to just 24 points each.

Ole Miss' last win in November was a convincing one. By defeating Alabama State by 65 points at the SJB Pavilion, it marks the widest margin of victory in program history and the largest in the McPhee-McCuin era.

It's the sixth instance of an Ole Miss team reaching the +60 mark and only the second time in history that the Rebels have achieved the feat twice in the same year. Previously, Ole Miss defeated Arkansas Pine-Bluff by 61 points in the Rebels' first victory of the season. The last time an Ole Miss squad has secured two 60-point margins wins in a year was the 1982-83 season.

In its final game of the nonconference season, Ole Miss had its most efficient night of shooting in program history after going 67.3 percent from the field.

TOPPED THE TOP 10

For the first time since Jan. 24, 2010, the Rebels' toppled an AP top 10 ranked team on the road in its final game of the 2024-25 regular season against No. 7 LSU. Ole Miss' 85 points against LSU is the fifth-most in program history against an AP top 10 team in games that the Rebels' won.

This win marked Ole Miss' second win over an AP top 10 team during the 2024-25 season, its other being against then-No. 8 Kentucky on Feb. 10. The last time a Rebel squad won multiple games against top 10 opponents came in the 2006-07 season, when that team beat three.

These wins mark the second and third time in the Coach Yo era that the Rebels have dropped a top-10 ranked team, with the prior upset coming in the 2023 NCAA Tournament against No. 5 Stanford.

TWENTY TIMES AS NICE

Last year, Ole Miss reached the 20-win plateau for a fourth consecutive season. This is the first time in the 21st century that Ole Miss has reached at least 20 wins in four straight seasons and first since Van Chancellor led 11 consecutive teams to that mark from 1981-92. Additionally, the Rebels have now hit the mark for the fourth straight season and for the 22nd time in program history.

HISTORY RE-WRITTEN

A win over LSU to cap off the 2024-25 regular season hit yet another historic marker for the Rebels, reaching 10 wins in SEC play for the fourth consecutive year, starting in the 2021-22 season. McPhee-McCuin becomes the program's first head coach to guide Ole Miss to four consecutive 10-plus conference wins.

FROM DANCE, TO SURVIVE AND ADVANCE

Not only have the Rebels created the expectation of reaching the NCAA Tournament each season, Ole Miss is now expected to make the dance and keep winning.

Ole Miss has gone on to win each of its First Round NCAA Tournament games the past three seasons, defeating Gonzaga in 2023, Marquette in 2024 and Ball State in 2025. The Rebels hold 23 NCAA Tournament wins over its 21 tournament appearances.

The Rebels have had a storied history in their 50-year existence, and a part of that history has been Ole Miss' success in the NCAA Tournament.

Ole Miss has earned 21 NCAA Tournament bids, advancing to five regional championship games (Elite Eight) and 12 regional semifinals (Sweet Sixteen) and compiled a total of 22 NCAA Tournament victories.

In addition, six Rebels have been named to All-NCAA Regional teams, including Jennifer Gillom, who was named the Midwest Regional MVP in 1986.
